14 Above This A. M.; Gas Pressure Is Normal Again

It was rather frosty around the edges this morning, thank you, as the mercury skidded down to the 14 above zero mark, which is a pretty low temperature to register in this climate so late in March.

A rising temperature was the order as the day progressed giving every indication that the storm, accompanied by a biting wind, which swept the Ohio Valley Monday, has passed on toward the Atlantic seaboard. Warmer weather is predicted and the change to balmy breezes will be well-comed by a shivering public in this section.

The gas pressure was extremely low in the city for several hours last night, but it was back to normal this morning and as a result the brief cold spell caused little inconvenience. The low pressure was caused by the heavy demand owing to the excessively cold night, officials of the gas company aver.

For several hours last night street car service was at a standstill as a result.

CARLYLE-LABOLD CO. MAY BUILD BRANCH PLANT NEAR IRONTON

There is a strong possibility that the Carlyle-Labold company may soon establish a branch plant in Coal Grove just east of Ironton.

G. E. Carlyle stated last night that such a move is being contemplated. Regarding the proposed new brick plant the Ironton Register yesterday said:

The Carlyle-Labold Company, of Portsmouth, seeks a location in Lawrence County for a firebrick manufacturing plant. Options have been secured on real estate in Coal Grove and the erection of a splendid plant seems assured. That company sought options in Ironton some time ago, but the owners of the land at that time placed a value on it that was prohibitive and the company, through its local representatives sought a site elsewhere, finally deciding that Coal Grove was an ideal spot. A plant of this kind does not employ much skilled labor, but they employ from 50 to 100 men at good wages. The Coal Grove tax duplicate will be enriched and unskilled men will find remunerative employment. If the Carlyle-Labold Company comes to Lawrence County they should be given a cordial welcome.

We need just such a diversity of interests to make Ironton and vicinity a real hive of industry the year around and men of the standing of Messrs. Carlyle and Labold and associates would be a welcome addition, even though their presence here was but periodic. A definite announcement of the company's plans will soon be forthcoming.

A Successful Man

Among the notable professional men of this country who achieved great success along strictly legitimate lines was Dr. R. V. Pierce. Devoting his attention to the specialty of women's diseases, he became a recognized authority in that line.

Over fifty years ago this noted physician gave to the world a prescription which has never been equaled for the weaknesses of women. Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., long since found out what is naturally best for women's diseases. He learned it all thru treating thousands of cases. The result of his studies was a medicine called Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This medicine is made of vegetable growths that nature surely intended for backache, headache, weakening pains, and for the many disorders common to women in all ages of life. Women who take this standard remedy know that in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription they are getting a safe woman's tonic so good that druggists everywhere sell it in both tablet and fluid form.

Germany Says French Must Evacuate Ruhr Before Peace Negotiation Possible

PARIS, Mar. 20—An investigation of conditions in the Rhineland and the Ruhr is being made by the American embassy, following receipt of numerous complaints from American business houses to the effect that the occupation is hindering business between the United States and Germany.

BERLIN, Mar. 20—(By the Associated Press).—If France is sincerely desirous of acquainting herself with the German official position in respect to the Ruhr issue, her ambassadors in Washington and London will undoubtedly be given the fullest opportunity to inform themselves of the contents of the informal memorandum voluntarily placed at the disposal of the United States and Great Britain and Germany last Friday, it was stated here today.

Note Intended For France.

Whether Germany's latest memorandum on the Ruhr situation and the reparations question will prove a useful contribution to possible early endeavors through third parties to force a breach in the Franco-German impasse has so far brought out only a limited amount of speculation in German political and financial circles.

The memorandum, delivered in Washington and London last Friday, while addressed to the American and British governments to inform them of the German view of the situation was incidentally intended to be made available to France and Belgium through diplomatic channels, it was officially explained today. Official quarters declined to comment further except to declare that it was up to France to create an atmosphere which would be conducive to negotiations and that the memorandum could be in no wise regarded as a formal attempt to obtain the intervention of an Anglo-Saxon power in the Ruhr situation.

Ruhr Must Be Freed.

Parliamentary leaders who are regularly consulted by Chancellor Cuno and Baron von Rosenberg continue to concur in the current interpretation of the government's position, that no basis for negotiations can exist until tangible assurance is given Germany that Ruhr will be definitely freed from military occupation the instant a new understanding with respect to reparations is reached. Any suggestion that the occupation be reduced to zones will be promptly rejected by the German government, it is declared. It was emphasized again today that Germany must go to the conference table unfettered, and that any resumption of reparations negotiations must proceed from a new starting point as the German government considers the London schedule of 1921, which is now supposed to be effective, not only obsolete but practically incapable of enforcement.

No Renewal Of Offer.

No hint is given at the finance ministry as to the ultimate figures Germany would indicate as possible of fulfillment, although it is observed that the offer of 30,000,000,000 gold marks provided for in her rejected January proposals could not be renewed.

The total of 132,000,000,000 marks specified in the London schedule no longer is viewed with even a semblance of seriousness in German quarters.

"This is more than eight times the British debt to the United States for the payment of which England has just been granted a respite of sixty-two years and a nominal rate of interest" one of the finance ministry officials observed today.

WASHINGTON, March 20—Contents of the memorandum delivered to Secretary Hughes Friday by Ambassador Biehoff of the German embassy, which is said to have given Germany's position on the question of reparations, will remain secret so far as the State Department is concerned. It probably will be placed in the confidential files without having its text divulged, even to Jules J. Jusserand, the French ambassador here.

Decision not to make the memorandum public or to add to the brief statement of the Department on Saturday relative to the receipt of the communication, made known today on receipt of press advices from Berlin that the German foreign office was willing to have the German government make the statement public or make its text known through diplomatic channels to Premier Poincaré. In reference to the latter suggestion it was said that Germany still retained a diplomatic representative in Paris and if it was desired that M. Poincaré should know what had been stated to the Washington and London governments, that information could be furnished by the Berlin charge in Paris.

Many Newspapers Suppressed.

CORLENN, Mar. 20—(By the Associated Press).—Of the 1,170 newspapers published in the Rhineland and the Ruhr, 455 have been suppressed by the occupation authorities for periods varying from three days to several months, according to semi-official German figures.

Prison sentences running as high as 18 months and fines of as much as 1,000,000 marks have been imposed upon 82 editors and 31 publishers. Eighteen editors and nine publishers have been deported with their families.

Why We Selected E. J. Staebler to Sell NAVARRE PEARLS

A CHAIN of steel is no stronger than its weakest link. A national selling organization is judged, and rightly, too, by its local representative. Primarily, we designated this firm as distributors of Navarre Pearls because of its well-known integrity; because of its reputation as a house of fair and square dealing; because it enjoys the confidence of the people.

It is the business of lovely woman to enhance her loveliness—Navarre Pearls add wondrously to her natural charms. It is our business to submit the claims of Navarre Pearls to discriminating women through the most estimable medium; we have done so, we believe, in the selection of this reputable firm as our sole and exclusive representatives.

Failure Of New Boston Councilmen To Attend Meetings Arouses Anger Of Mayor

When the hour rolled around for the regular meeting of New Boston Council to convene last night, and only three members were present, Mayor William F. Newberry had his ire raised to such a pitch that he immediately issued a public statement concerning the lack of attention given village affairs by three of the village councilmen, namely Earl Wolfe and Dr. T. H. McCann, Republicans, and Talmage Jones, Democrat. The three members present, and who have been attending all sessions regularly, were W. L. Davis, Millard Bailey and John Payton, Democrats. Mayor Newberry, in remarking on the non-attendance of members, stated that if they did not intend to give their time and attention to village matters, they should resign in order to give someone who would do the work, a chance.

The following statement was then given out by Mayor Newberry: "In order that the people of the village of New Boston may understand conditions, I feel that it is my duty to issue at this time a statement relative to the lack of attention given to public duty by certain members of the village council. "For several months it has been difficult to obtain the quorum necessary for the transaction of business; and next to impossible to have present three-fourths of council which number is necessary for the more important measures. "This is a deplorable condition, existing, as it does, in the face of the fact that these members of council hold their positions by the consent of the electors of the village and at whose hands they have sought election. "These men have sworn to faithfully transact the people's business. Notwithstanding this, legislation vital to the safety and progress of the village has been held up and village officers and employees find it necessary to wait for their compensation. "Council members and officers who have a high conception of their responsibilities to the people meet and must adjourn and make the sacrifice of returning for special meetings in hope that a quorum will be present. "No individual chosen for public duty should neglect that duty because it has become distasteful or because conditions have arisen making performance impossible when others are willing and eager to serve in those positions. "Signed William F. Newberry, Mayor."

May Take Steps To Settle Waterworks Case

Legislation authorizing a bond issue to provide funds to effect a settlement of the McGowan waterworks cases and the resignation of Judge George M. Osborn are among the most important matters expected to come before council at its regular meeting Wednesday night. It is said that Judge Osborn is inclined to allow his resignation to stand on account of his health, in which event council will be called upon to name his successor.

Will Urge Commission To Buy Bonds

A party of city officials, headed by Mayor W. N. Chubb and including Councilmen Edward Westphal and C. C. Horr and Solicitor Sherrard, will leave for Portland tomorrow day by motor. The mission of the officials to the state capital is to urge the Industrial Commission to purchase the street improvement bonds, recently authorized by council, to provide funds to pay the cost of resurfacing, sewerage, gas and electric lines, and other improvements. They will investigate the system used in that city of building sewers by districts under the "assessment for benefits" plan.

Fire Damages Garage

A fire which is thought to have originated from spontaneous combustion in a metal bucket containing oily rags caused an estimated damage of $50 to the frame garage at the rear of the home of Claude Boyd 112 1/2 North street shortly before five o'clock yesterday afternoon. One wall and part of the roof of the building were burned away before the equipment from two fire stations reached the scene and suppressed the flames.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST BAKING POWDER

On their way to the Cut-Out Lady's house in Sugar-Plum Land, the Twins heard something go "Mew, mew, mew." It was the Silk-Stocking Cat with the braided tail.

"No, the Silk-Stocking Cat is nothing like Huss-U-Too's, but gets his name because he is made out of the top of a silk stocking, and stuffed with soft cotton.

"Oh, oh, oh," he mewed. "I wish I could, but I can't, I can't, but I wish I could."

"Could what?" asked Nancy feeling sorry for the poor thing.

"Climb," said the cat blinking his yarn eyes sorrowfully, and nipping his yarn mustache wiggle up and down.

"Well, can't you?" asked Nick.

"Don't ask foolish questions, please," remarked the cat. "Haven't you any eyes? Don't you see that my toenails are made of yarn, too. They are only sewed on. How can I climb a tree?"

Miss Carrie Zollman, supervisor at Bond and Union Street Schools, has returned to her duties after a few days' illness at her home on Offshore Street.

"But what's the difference?" asked Nancy. "You don't have to climb trees, do you?"

"No, but just look at the trees," mewed the Silk-Stocking Cat. "Simply full of good things! Ginger cookie sparrows, and lemon-cake canaries, and chocolate chickens, and everything."

"I suppose they make you hungry," said Nancy. "but what good would it do you if you did have real toenails and could climb trees?"

"Good! What good would it do if you were starving and were suddenly set down to a table piled up with goodies? Good, indeed!"

"But you can't open your mouth to eat," went on Nancy. "How can you eat when your mouth is made of yarn just like your toes? People with yarn mouths don't need to eat anything but cotton and I don't think you are starved at all. Your tummy sticks away out and you look as fat as butter."

The Silk-Stocking Cat began to smile. "You are right, my dear," he nodded pleasantly, wiggling his yarn mustache. "I was very silly. I won't be so foolish again."

Jail Delivery Frustrated; Mershon Ready To Beat It

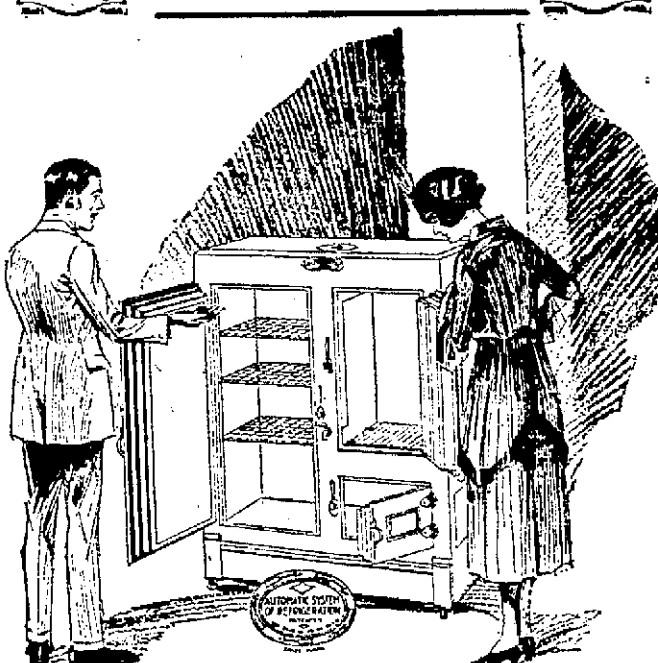

Clay Mershon arrested here several weeks ago and held in the Hamilton county jail in Cincinnati in connection with the hold-up and robbery of the payroll from the H. H. Meyer Company, Cincinnati, was one of a number of prisoners who almost made their escape from the big jail Sunday night. Mershon, along with several others, had his grip packed and was ready to leave when one guard stopped the "freedom" march of the prisoners who had covered two guards with guns and locked them in a cell and had beaten a "rusty" into unconsciousness. There were forty prisoners in the group that had planned to escape.

An auto theft ring-leader led the prisoners. He once escaped from the General hospital, Cincinnati.

- 4—Will it have a water cooling system.
- 5—Will it make an attractive "furnishing" for my kitchen.

THE WINDS OF DEATH

BY E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM

Copyright, 1922, by E. Phillips Oppenheim. Arrgt. NEA Service, Inc.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Vendetta begins between MICHAEL SAYERS, noted criminal, and SIR NORMAN GREYES, once of Scotland Yard, when Sayers' beautiful housemaid, JANET, saves him from Sir Norman by shooting dead an officer sent to arrest him. Janet becomes Sayers' wife and accomplice. While Sir Norman is living at his country house the police appeal to him to help run to earth a criminal whom they believe to be at the head of a dangerous gang.

On his way to London Greyes' car is stopped and he is shot through the shoulder. Janet receives money and jewels from a mysterious source. Greyes asks Janet to dine with him. Janet accepts. She later visits Michael, who is faking illness in a nursing home.

NOW GO ON WITH STORY Janet Continues

She closed the door, and I advanced toward the bedside, only to step back with a little exclamation. I thought that there must be some mistake. The man who sat up in bed, watching me, seemed at first sight a stranger. His hair, which had been dark, was now of a sandy gray, and he wore a short, stubby mustache of the same color. His cheeks had fallen in; his forehead seemed more prominent; there was an unfamiliar scar on the left side of his face.

"Michael!" I exclaimed incredulously.

"Capital!" he replied. "You see no resemblance to Mr. James Stanfield?"

"Not the slightest," I assured him. "The whole thing is wonderful. But what is the matter with you?"

"Nothing," was the impatient rejoinder. "I have had to starve myself to get thin. I took the place and the name of a business acquaintance upon the boat. It was quite a smart piece of work. I am supposed to be suffering from a nervous breakdown. Bosh! I haven't a nerve in my body."

"You left me alone for a long time," I reminded him.

"I was fighting for my life," he answered grimly. "You don't know the inner workings of the game, so I can't explain. I was hemmed in. As soon as I broke away, they were never on to me again. I brought off the coup of my life in New York, but—things went wrong, Janet. You know what that means."

"You killed some one?" I whispered.

"I had no intention of doing anything of the sort," he answered. "It was Harrier, the banker, himself. He forced me into a fight at close quarters. We exchanged shots. I was wounded. So was he. He was in miserable health, though, and he never recovered. The shock killed him as much as anything. I got away all right, but it means all or nothing for the future."

"If you have enough," I suggested, "why not try the other end of the world?"

"I have thought of everywhere," he answered. "of Indo-China, the South Sea Islands, New Guinea, the far South American states. They are all hopeless. The eyes follow. There is safety only under the shadow of the arm."

"What about our meeting?" I asked. "I am known."

"It is a problem to be solved," he said slowly. "There is risk in it; yet the thought of parting with you, Janet, is like a clutching hand laid upon my heart."

It was the first word of the sort he had ever spoken to me, and again, for some reason I shivered.

"What is your need of me now?" I demanded.

"To get rid of Norman Greyes," he replied.

There was a silence during which I felt that he was studying my face, and although I do not believe that a muscle twitched or that my eyes lost their steady light, still, I was thankful for the darkened room.

"I have figured it all out," he went on. "I am safe here, safe except from that one man. Even as I am now, he would recognize me. The moment I move, and there are big things to be done here, I shall feel him on my trail. It is his life or mine."

"Why do you think that I can do this?" I asked.

"Because, although he does not know it, Norman Greyes feels your attraction. He is too strong a man to succumb, but he can never resist dallying with it, because it provides him with something new in life. You suggest to him a sensation which he obtains nowhere else. I know men like a hook, Janet, and I have seen these things."

"Do you know women, too?" I ventured.

"Sufficiently," he answered.

"How do you propose that I should do this?" I asked.

"Norman Greyes," he said, "is one of those men whom it is hard to kill. A fool walks to his death. Norman Greyes wears the aura of defiance. They have tried during the last few weeks. One of the finest marksmen in England missed him with a rifle at a hundred yards. He is a reckless motorist; yet he drove a car with safety when the steering-wheel collapsed. Nevertheless, if he had stayed in Devonshire, we should have had him. They tell me that he is in London."

"He is within a few yards of this spot," I announced, "and I am dilly with him tonight."

For a moment his eyes flashed at me like steel caught in the sunlight.

"I met him at the corner of the street this morning," I explained.

"I ask no question," was the cold reply. "I shall know if you are ever faithful. . . . A little present for you, Janet."

He brought his hand from under the pillow and handed me an exquisitely chased gold box, a curio of strange shape and with small enamel figures inlaid. I exclaimed with delight. He touched the spring. It was filled with white powder, on the top of which reposed a tiny powder-puff.

"Be careful not to let any of the powder get near your mouth," he enjoined. "A pinch upon the food or in the glass is sufficient. Take it."

I dropped it into the silk bag I was carrying. I was trying to tell myself that I had killed a man before.

"That half-ounce cost me one hundred pounds," he said. "Men scour the world for it. You can handle the powder freely. There is no danger until it gets into the system."

"And then?"

"It makes a helpless invalid of the strongest for at least two years."

To Dainty People

Who don't want dingy film on teeth

This offers you a method millions now employ. It is used the world over—in some 50 countries—by people who want to fight film.

You see the results everywhere. New charm, new beauty comes from glistening teeth. Now we urge you to learn, by a delightful test, how such teeth are acquired.

Able authorities proved these methods by many careful tests. Then a new-type tooth paste was created, based on modern research. Those two great film combatants were embowed in it.

That tooth paste is called Pepsodent. Dentists the world over now advise its daily use.

Constant guardians

Pepsodent also creates constant guardians. It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva. That is there to neutralize mouth acids, the cause of tooth decay.

It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva. That is there to digest starch deposits which may otherwise ferment and form acids.

Thus it gives manifold power to these great natural tooth-protecting agents.

'Twill delight you

The Pepsodent results will amaze and delight you. This test may change the whole dental history in your home.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear.

What you see and feel will very soon convince you. And that is most important. Cut out coupon now.

Avoid Harmful Grit

Pepsodent cures the film and removes it without harmful scouring. Its polishing agent is far softer than enamel. Never use a film combatant which contains harsh grit.

Old brushing methods left much film intact. No ordinary tooth paste can effectively combat it.

So dental science sought ways to fight film, and in time found two. One acts to curdle film, one to remove it, and without any harmful scouring.

Market News

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, Mar. 20.—Opening prices in today's stock market displayed a firm tone. A renewal of the recent buying in domestic oils sent Producers and Refiners, Phillips Petroleum and Marland to new high records for the year, the last having gained 1 1/2%. A good demand was noted for motor coaches, equipment and motor accessories. Corn products continued fractionally. Additional new high records were made National Lead up 2 1/4; Gulf States Steel up 1 and White Motors and Electric Storage Battery up fractionally. Trading in rails was relatively quiet but Chicago Northwest, Erie, Canadian Pacific, Delaware and Hudson and Wabash preferred all sold at higher prices. Tightly Wiggins jumped 3 1/2 points and Marine preferred, Atlantic Gulf, East Iron Pipe and American Metal each sold a point above yesterday's final prices. Foreign exchanges opened irregular, demand falling dropping 1/4 of a cent to $4.02 1/2 and French francs advancing 7 points to 6.54 cents. Pool operations were conducted in a select list of stocks throughout the morning but profit taking sales caused a reactionary trend in some of the leaders, notably Standard Oil and the Pan American, which yielded moderately. Tightly Wiggins, recent transactions in which are under investigation by the New York Stock Exchange, recorded a sensational rise of 21 points to 33, a new high record for the year. A 20th demand was noted for Gulf States Steel, American Can, American Woolen and California Petroleum up 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 points. Call money opened at 5 per cent.

The main price tendency in today's stock market was upward despite the fact that the market was called upon to absorb an unusually large volume of stock because of speculative apprehension over the possible effects of the violent fluctuations in Tightly Wiggins. That stock jumped from 72 to 123 and then fell back to 95 on the reported squeezing out of short interests. Heavy buying orders in the steel, textiles and standard rails eventually turned the course of prices upward.

Chautauqua To Be Held In July

Portsmouth's 1923 Chautauqua probably will be held the middle of July, with attractions furnished by the Redpath Company of Columbus. At a meeting held Monday evening, Gilbert F. Dodds was named chairman, and an executive committee of prominent citizens was announced as solidly behind the project.

Meeting with the committee was George G. Whitehead of the Redpath Chautauqua Company, who explained the recent taking over of Col. Albee seven-day chautauqua interests in Ohio, by Redpath. He outlined in detail the interesting program for the coming summer, and it was the unanimous opinion of those present that the outlook for the season is unusually promising.

Portsmouth churches are to take an active part in the campaign. They have definitely pledged ticket quotas, and in addition the Boy Scout Council, under the leadership of Executive Lord T. Henderson, has agreed to push the ticket canvass to a successful completion. It is believed that at least a thousand patrons can be secured for the seven day program.

Among the headline events of Chautauqua week will be the Victor Italian Guards' band; the play, "Turn to the Right," with a cast of nine people; the National Male Quartet, featuring Charles Cox, comedian; Geoffrey O'Hara, celebrated song writer who produced such numbers as "There Is No Death," "K-K-K-Katy," and "Give a Man a Horse He Can Ride"; the Grosjean Marimba-Xylophone Company, along with numerous other musical companies, lecturers and entertainers. The program will be offered on seven consecutive days, with an appropriate combination of talent on Sunday.

The fact that a Redpath program is to be given in Portsmouth will be welcome news for those who attended the programs given by that company in the earlier Chautauqua days. The Redpath management had Portsmouth on the list when the Ohio circuit Chautauqua was first launched. It also is noteworthy that a local citizen, Judge A. Z. Blair, spent one season on the lecture platform for Redpath, touring many of the southern and central states.

Claim Kearns Slate s Democrat For Job

The Cincinnati Enquirer Tuesday said: Republican politicians were discussing yesterday a report that Congressman Charles C. Kearns, of the Sixth Ohio district, had obtained the "slating" of Alvin Hodges, now of Cincinnati, but formerly of Clermont county, to be first assistant to United States District Attorney Benson W. Hough.

The report was that normally members of the Hodges family were Democrats, but that they had supported

Mr. Kearns in his last congressional race, and gratitude prompted him to support Attorney Alvin Hodges for the appointment. It is stated, however, that Clermont county, a part of the Sixth congressional district, was believed to have a candidate for the first assistantship in Howard E. Joseph. It is said that the old Republican Committee of Clermont county endorsed Mr. Joseph for the position, and that while the present committee endorsed Mr. Hodges it was unaware of all the facts in the matter. Haverth E. Mann of Dayton also has been endorsed strongly for the position.

DICKERING FOR A NEW SITE

Members of the St. Mary's and Holy Redeemer congregations, who have been casting about for a site for a centralized high school, are negotiating for the Chabot property on Twenty-Third street, just north of the city and extending to Waller street. The tract is owned by Alva Chabot, Third street grocer, and Dr. J. W. Chabot of Tebbles.

Had To Move Into School Building

"Houses are not scarce in Portsmouth!" If you want to risk your own life just mention this to Charles Filigor of Twentieth street. They are so scarce that he had to move his family into a school building on Albert Road until he finds a home. Probably at no time in the history of the city are houses as scarce as they are just now.

Deal Means Another New Addition

Attorney Edward J. Daehler, of this city, and R. H. Corriell, of the Long Meadow addition, have purchased the Russ tract of land in that addition and will subdivide it into building lots. The strip comprises 11 acres and was owned by Joseph and William and Margaret Russ, of Sciotoville.

Says Guilty To Intoxication; Fined $1,000

Evidently "stews" not the kind you may order in a restaurant but those born of the cup that cheers, will be a rare article in Ironton if every person arrested for drunkenness suffers the same fate as Clarence Tipton of that city. He pleaded guilty to a charge of intoxication and was fined $1,000, to stand committed to the workhouse until paid.

Name Vice Chairmen

Sells His Property
J. J. Brubart has sold his property at Front and Union streets, to a man living in Olive Hill, Ky. The deal includes two store rooms, two flats and a dwelling in the rear of the store rooms.

The campaign for Greater Hempstead Hospital is progressing satisfactorily and the increased interest taken by the public is manifesting itself by continued offers of co-operation and support, according to a report given out at campaign headquarters today.

Is Improving
Orville Tatman, of Friendship, has recovered from a week's illness.

At the meeting held at the Headquarters yesterday afternoon, Henry H. Winter and Samuel Wise were elected Vice-Chairmen.

Enlists In Navy
Louis Bonzo has resigned his clerkship in the Wolff clothing store on Chilliote street, and has enlisted in the United States Navy. He is a son of Patrolman Joe Bonzo, of Twelfth street.

At yesterday's meeting Henry H. Winter, Vice-Chairman said: This is an intensive campaign. It is intended to reach every section of the city so that every one may have the privilege of securing greater hospital facilities for the community.

Two More Snows
While in the city Tuesday David Chautauqua, famous weather prophet, says there will be two more snows before real spring weather arrives. He says the spring will be dry and there will be heavy fruit crops.

The Greater Hempstead Hospital is for all. It is as free to the poor man as to the rich for he will be just as welcome. No worthy sufferer will be barred whether he has sufficient money to pay for his accommodation or not. The aim and object of this building is to relieve human suffering and to save life.

WITH THE SICK

Walter Webb, aged three, of 720 Tenth street, who is a grandson of E. J. Helt, underwent an operation for the removal of his tonsils and adenoids at the Mercy Clinic on Gallia street this morning.

An adjourned meeting of New Boston council will be held Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock, when it is hoped that every member will be present.

Fire In New Boston
New Boston firemen were called to the home of W. A. Platt, 4317 Gallia street, New Boston, about two o'clock Tuesday afternoon when a coal fire built in a grate caused brick in the wall behind the baseboard to get so hot that they scorched the baseboard. The fire was extinguished before the arrival of firemen.

The Misses Nell and Maud Bierley of Carrs, Ky., are visiting their brother, C. W. Bierley, and sister, Miss Anna Bierley, of Hutchins street.

Reds Turn Tables On The Indians

The Cincinnati Reds secured revenge yesterday when they turned the tables on the Cleveland Indians, defeating the American leaguers at Lakeland, Fla., training camp of the Speaker tribe, by the count of 2 to 1. Cleveland won the first tilt a week ago 8 to 2.

Good pitching of Pete Donohue and Conch marked the contest, and the former's exhibition was so good that it means the rally Texas will certainly pinch the opening game of the championship season on April 17.

His election to that position is now only a formality, which will be confirmed at the international convention of Rotary Clubs at St. Louis in June. Mr. Maddox succeeded Governor George C. Mitchell, of Ohio.

The Cincinnati (Ohio) Rotarians won a silver dinner gong, presented by the Cincinnati Rotarians for having the largest number of delegates in attendance. The twenty-second district comprises Southern Ohio and Kentucky.

ROLL MISSING; ARREST MADE

The preliminary hearing of Evelyn Whitman, arrested by the police last night on a larceny charge in connection with the theft of a pocketbook containing $43 from Roby Webb, of Adams county, was continued until Saturday, when the case was called on Municipal court this afternoon.

Webb told the police that he missed his money after visiting the woman at a house at 730 Eleventh street, Monday, and the police investigation resulted in the finding of the man's purse in a vault in the rear of the Eleventh street address, but the money was missing from it, the police say.

Charles Fry, 22, and Ona Moore, 27, were the names given by two young men taken into custody by the police and locked up at the city jail for investigation in connection with the disappearance of the money. The Whitman woman is out under $500 bond pending her hearing.

Got The Money From All Of Them; Testimony Shows

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 20.—The alleged "fake" law enforcement proceedings of Gary, Ind., officials, who witnesses testified, showed no discrimination between whiskey runners and innocent motorists, insofar as relieving them of their money was concerned, were expected to receive additional airing when hearings are resumed in the Lake county liquor conspiracy case in federal court here today.

An unusual incident regarding the workings of the alleged ring of officials was related on the stand yesterday by Charles W. Kalver of Grand Rapids, Mich., who declared that while motoring through Gary, he was arrested on a trumped up charge of transporting liquor and despite the fact that no evidence to bear out the charge was produced by the arresting officers, he was forced to pay $300 before gaining his release from custody and obtaining his car which had been confiscated. The money, he testified was "split up" among the officials without the case ever coming to trial or an appearance in court being made.

While he was being held, the sheriff of Lake county appropriated the car to his own use and it was in a badly damaged condition when returned, according to the witness. Kalver's story was borne out by the statement of Miss Alice Able.

Firemen confined their efforts to keep one million gallons of liquid tar, located in tar pits and cellars of the burned plant, taking fire.

Many Bids Received By State Treasurer From Ohio Banks

COLUMBUS, O., March 20.—Approximately four hundred Ohio banks bid an average of about four and a half per cent for between $16,000,000 and $20,000,000 state funds here today. Bids were opened by State Treasurer Day this afternoon. The total amount for which bids were presented aggregated $24,474,500 for inactive deposits.

While the average interest rate offered by the banks today is somewhat lower than rates offered a year ago, State Treasurer Day said he was well satisfied and predicted that all the state's money could be loaned very profitably.

Bids also were received from Columbus banks for active state funds including teachers' retirement funds. Awards will not be made for several days.

Piggly Wiggly Jumps

NEW YORK, Mar. 20.—A sensational jump in the stock of Piggly Wiggly Stores, which had advanced on a small volume of sales from Monday's close of 72 to 123 soon after noon today, again brought dealings in that stock on the New York Exchange into prominence.

Recent transactions in the stock already are the subject of an investigation by the business conduct committee of New York Stock Exchange.

EUGENICS LAW

REPEALED

MADISON, WIS., March 20.—Repeal of the Wisconsin eugenics law, requiring an ante-natal physical examination before issuance of a marriage license, was voted by the lower house of the legislature today. There was not a dissenting vote.

Assemblyman Newcomb Spooner, author of the repeal bill, said that Wisconsin ministers were losing large sums of money as a direct result of the law, which cuts the number of marriages consummated in the state, while counties were losing additional amounts through a cut in the number of marriage licenses issued. Assemblyman Spooner said thousands of innocent couples each year leave the state to get married.

Mohr Admits Playing With Tanks; Is Barred At Case

CLEVELAND, O., March 20.—A. R. Mohr, star halfback of Case School of Applied Science football team, has been barred from participation in all branches of athletics at the scientific school, according to an announcement today by Professor C. L. Eddy, chairman of the faculty committee on athletics. Mohr was charged with playing professional football with the Ironton Tanks in 1920, and when confronted with the facts in the case by Professor Eddy, he admitted his guilt.

"There was nothing else we could do but bar Mohr from athletics as his own statements convicted him and he will have to pay the penalty," Professor Eddy said in making the announcement.

It had also been reported that Case officials had been investigating an "illegitimate loan" proposition for students in athletics. Professor Eddy said that this matter had been sifted to the bottom but without results. There is no evidence of any kind to show that an "illegitimate loan" ever existed at Case, he was quoted as saying.

P. H. S. Trackmen Hear First Call

The first call for track material at P. H. S. was sounded last Friday by Athletic Director McComb and about sixty reported. There is some excellent material this year, about ten letter men being out.

While the sport is not yet an established one at P. H. S., and is far less popular than basketball, it is thought that if the Red and Blue develops a good track team this spring, much interest will be stimulated.

With McComb, a veteran at the game, acting as coach, a real squad should result. Those who qualify will take part in the Big Six Meet at Columbus near the close of the school term.
